

Tandem Press to participate in Art Chicago 2008

Tandem Press has been chosen by a Selection Committee of some of the most esteemed names in the arts community to participate in Art Chicago 2008. One of the world's premier contemporary and modern art fairs, Art Chicago will run April 25 – 28 at The Merchandise Mart in Chicago, and will feature 180 of the foremost galleries from around the globe.

Tandem Press will showcase new work by Judy Pfaff, Sam Gilliam, David Shapiro, David Lynch, and Greg Conniff.

The centerpiece of Artropolis, a city-wide celebration of arts, antiques and culture, Art Chicago will display the works of approximately 2,000 artists in a variety of media including painting, drawing, sculpture, photography, prints and video installations. It will occupy the entirety of The Mart's newly renovated 200,000 square foot 12th floor. Last year's event attracted 42,000 visitors, and this year the number is expected to increase significantly.

"The scope of this year's Art Chicago is tremendous," remarked Tony Karman, director of Sales and Development for Art Chicago. "The number and quality of applications were very strong and our final exhibitor list of 180 galleries reflects a bright future for Art Chicago, with 40 worldwide cities and 18 countries represented. Tandem Press can consider themselves among the finest company in the arts world today."

"In every measurable way," commented Merchandise Mart Senior Vice President Mark Falanga, "Art Chicago 2008 is bigger and better. We attribute many of these improvements to the standards established by our Selection Committee, the enthusiastic participation of cultural partners throughout the city of Chicago, and the complementary satellite fairs. The combination of these elements makes Chicago a destination city for the arts enthusi-
